

A Choose-Your-Own Adventure Fit for a Neutral Good Deep Gnome

Created by Books of Bokoron in honor of the upcoming release of the song, "Random Encounter Tables".

One of the orcs sees you as you try to hide behind some barrels. You push the barrel pile over on them, knocking one orc to the ground but one of the others strikes you with the butt of his spear in the abdomen before the barrels block him from you. You groan with pain but move quickly down the hallway before they can clear the obstructions.
